S&amp;E doctoral degrees, by selected region, country, or economy: 2000–18

Note(s):

To facilitate international comparison, data for the United States are those reported to the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, which vary slightly from the National Center for Science and Engineering Statistics classification of fields presented in other sections of the report. Data are not available for Brazil for 2000–13 or for India for 2007–10.
